A Letter from the Chairs
Steve Cooper & Alice Lawson

It does not seem like nine months since we last wrote to you all in PR1, but then, as they say, “time flies as you’re having fun”, and the last nine months have been fun. We now find ourselves the sitting Worldcon, looking back at all that has been achieved, and looking forward to all the wonders we hope to bring you. We will begin to outline many of those in this PR.

Our membership is tracking beyond any reasonable expectations we could have had when we launched the bid. We now have well over 4,000 members and we are now pretty damn sure Loncon 3 will be the largest Worldcon in the last decade. If we continue to track as we are, it may even be the largest Worldcon since the mid-1980s. We also look like we are already meeting one of our aims – to put the “World” in “Worldcon” – with members from more countries than most previous Worldcons and in numbers that are often more significant than seen before at Worldcon.

Looking forward, this PR brings you information about the opening of the nomination process not only for the 2014 Hugos but for the 1939 Retro-Hugos, which could have been awarded at the first Worldcon in New York.

PR2 also tells you everything you need to know about our hotel booking system, and how you can start making those necessary hotel bookings from 2 January, both online and over the phone.

There are initial details about our child care service, scooter hire and other access services that we hope will allow everyone to come to Loncon 3 and enjoy their time there. We’ve also put our code of conduct online at www.loncon3.org/conduct.php.

Once you’ve finished reading this PR, we suggest you go and have a look at our website. Shortly before LoneStarCon 3 we relaunched the web site and have been adding to it since. We will continue to add to it right up to the convention. Here you’ll find a lot more than we can ever hope to put in a PR, including links to all of our videos, helpful information about the science fiction of 1938 and lots, lots more for both members and prospective members that will keep you up to date with everything we have planned.

Until we next write you in PR3 – when we’ll know who the Hugo and Retro-Hugo nominees are, and will have a lot more to tell you about Programme and Events – toodle-pip.

As you’re probably aware, Iain M Banks, one of our Guests of Honour, died on 9 June this year. He was only 59. Our first progress report had been issued in March and had included David Haddock’s article on Iain M Banks’ London. The news of Iain’s illness came shortly after that progress report was produced. He contacted us after he received his diagnosis to say that he felt he had to withdraw from the convention along with his other public engagements. We said that, if he was willing, we would still wish to honour him and his contribution to the genre and community of science fiction at Loncon 3; we were pleased that he was happy with this.

At the time we still very much hoped that Iain would be able to join us all in London ExCel next August, but it was not to be. Iain married his long-time partner Adele on 29 March. The publication of his final novel, The Quarry, was brought forward to 20 June, but he died eleven days before it appeared.

Obviously, everybody concerned with Loncon 3 was incredibly saddened by this news. Many of our committee and staff had known Iain personally for over 25 years, in some cases since his first appearance at a science fiction convention in 1986. We read his novels, both his science fiction and his mainstream works, and we knew him as a vibrant and enthusiastic member of our community. He will, of course, be sorely missed.

As we’ve already said on our website, Iain M Banks remains one of Loncon 3’s Guests of Honour. For us there was never a question of doing anything else. His work will be featured in our programme, in our exhibits and in our publications, alongside that of our other guests. We firmly believe that being chosen as a Worldcon Guest of Honour is a significant recognition of a person’s commitment and contribution, and that the list of those who’ve been honoured in that way thus represents a Hall of Fame for the science fiction and fantasy field. Iain absolutely deserves his place on that list.

Those of you who have seen the promotional film created for us by Mark Slater last year might remember that Iain said of Loncon 3, ‘I strongly suspect it’ll be great fun and a total hoot.’ Although of course it won’t be quite the same without him, we’ll be doing all we can to live up to that expectation – and to honour Iain in that way too.
Now that it's less than a year until the long gestation ends, and the long weekend has come and gone like a tsunami bringing gifts, and we are all Light in August -- it's now I'm really beginning to feel the swell of something coming down the track. This is half the fun.

We all went to World Fantasy Con in Toronto last October. Judith and I, who had not traveled to Toronto together since well before my mother died in 2009, arrived early, retraced the tracks we'd laid down upon these streets over the long months after I got there in 1964 to find her. What had been a drab, crabbed city that we did not like has now become a memory-erased theme-parked downtown enclave: strangely, I kind of enjoyed the revenge that Amnesia PLC has wrought upon the old Toronto of my birth. But also felt very close to old friends who had remained there, prospered, brought up children, ate on wooden tables, did not suffer amnesia. And also had a superb time at WFC, everything being made easy as I was a GoH with Liz Hand and Richard Kirk, whom I'd never met and hope to see again, and Gary Wolfe as Toastmaster (a killing task, unsurprised China Miéville withdrew from this year's WFC, under the weight, I guess, of a different category of tsunami).

Then head down: what else is there, really, to do in this world? We're getting close to having added another million words to the Encyclopedia of Science Fiction since the launch of the third edition in October 2011. As of writing this (end of September) we're at 4,165,000 and counting. Have myself done slightly more than 5,000 solo entries, slightly less than 1,850,000 words. The Picture Gallery is above 7,000 images. David Langford has for his part shaped every word for the new medium: he makes it all work, and shapes the substance too. The book as a whole is necessarily transgressing into regions far beyond the remit of the second edition (1993), and into an entire universe beyond the first (1979). Next year I'd like to do a panel or something similar on what it all means to help crew this ship-sized catamaran into the future.

Other stuff. Liz and I just went to Uppsala, saw Jan and Isabella and Mats and Sara again, met the remarkable deeply likeable William Sutcliffe, and other stuff. Am at the moment trying to think through some revisions to an old book of mine, The Darkening Garden, so Roger Robinson, Reverend Master of Becon Publications, can get a revised edition out for next August. Hey it's a life (and life only), huh?

But what else is there to do when you're old and every day sees you further from completing your life's work and closer to stopping? Sun is out this morning. The market is serene. The new Routemaster #24 bus outside our front windows makes it seem we're young again, before Utopia bleached the Smoke. Onward.

Chris Foss: An Appreciation
Yvonne Rowse

Chris Foss is a name that I have recognised for years. There was a time that whenever I bought a new SF book (frequently) I just assumed the cover was by Chris Foss. Usually it was.

I came into fandom pretty late, not long before I turned forty, in the late 1990s and for some years I wasn't really aware of the Art Show. It's only in the last ten years that I've gone looking and then buying, and so there are no Chris Foss prints on my walls.

Mostly I have Dave Hardy prints, some John Harris, a Fangorn painting, and an exquisite pencil sketch for a Jim Burns painting. I love my SF art and would like more; however, there is competition in my house for wall space. Should I display the spines of books or the artwork that graces their covers? Pictures or books on walls? Hmm.

When I was asked to act as Guest of Honour liaison for Chris I went out and bought Hardware, mainly so that I could know which picture publications or exhibitions were begging the use of. I spent a long time looking through it, and that was the point where I realised just how much Chris Foss artwork I actually had in my house.

My mother died in early September, four weeks after a minor heart attack. Although she recovered easily after a stent was installed in an aorta, other organs began failing soon afterward. At 85 years of age, she didn’t have enough strength to fight battles on several fronts simultaneously. So my brothers, sister and I rearranged our lives and for that month divided up “mom watches” among ourselves, sitting with Mom as she fought a losing battle to get better and return home.

One afternoon I was sitting in Mom’s room in Waukesha Memorial Hospital’s ICU. At this point Mom wasn’t able to talk much. A stroke had reduced her available vocabulary to one or two words at a time, spoken with difficulty. Mostly she just nodded or shook her head. I was reading next to her bed when a technician wheeled in a very cool-looking machine that might easily have fit onto Buck Rogers’ spaceship’s dashboard. Very retro. Anyway, my attention was captured, and I watched as the technician attached a breathing mask over my mother’s mouth and nose, and pushed a button on the control panel. Steam began billowing out from the mask.

“So,” I asked, “What’s making the steam? Cool air or warm?”

The technician -- let’s call him Elmer -- looked up at me, and said slowly, carefully, “It’s PNEU-MATIC.”

“OK. But the steam...” I began.

Elmer sighed and said even more slowly, emphasizing each syllable and pitching his voice as if he were speaking to a child. “It’s PNEU-MATIC. It works like the machine your husband keeps in the trunk and uses to pump air into a tire!” (Just
This is probably the biggest news of the last six months of my life. The irony is that to me, it isn’t news at all.

In 2002, I wrote these words: “It is like the anticipation that a clever minstrel evokes when he pauses, letting silence pool before sweeping into the final refrain of the song. Sometimes a gap can be seen like a promise yet to be fulfilled.” That was close to the end of Fool’s Fate, the final volume in The Tawny Man Trilogy. I knew then that I needed a break before I went on with that tale. I never thought that gap would be eleven years. I knew, when I wrote those words, that there was one more trilogy to write, one that would bring the threads together, sweep away the final cobwebs to reveal the secrets and cap off the tales of the Fitz and the Fool. I knew where my characters would take it and at that time I believed my readers would be happy to be carried along.

The reasons for all the delay are many and various and probably make sense only to me. I will only say here that as I write this, the manuscript for

Soon afterward, the doctors let us know that there was nothing more they could do; that it was time to simply treat her pain and make her comfortable. And so, with her agreement, we moved her to hospice, where she died a few days later. My siblings and I reported everything to one another that happened in the hospital and hospice during those last weeks, but it was the moments in which her personality and sharp sense of humor showed through, despite her inability to communicate easily, that we re-told over and over -- to each other, to loved ones, and to friends who asked us for news. They are the moments I hope will remain in my own memory of these last difficult days.

This is probably the biggest news of the last six months of my life. The irony is that to me, it isn’t news at all.

The Fitz and the Fool Trilogy, book one, The Fool’s Assassin, is with the publishers. I wrote it in fits and starts, with many doubts. I put things in. I took them out. It took more than a year to write. It has already been through three intense rewrites. The question I wrestled with at the first half of the project was one that had plagued me for years. Who did the story belong to? Where did the obligation lie? Is there an unspoken contract that the writer will deliver what the readers expect? Who did I write for? The readers? Myself? An idealized reader I’d never met?

The answer I settled on was that my obligation was to my characters. They had to do what they would do, given the circumstances of the tale. I couldn’t change where the current of Story was carrying them. They were well and truly into it now, being swept along toward the inevitable, and all I could do as a writer was to faithfully document it. Once I accepted that, then the book began to unfold. It was the story I always knew it would be. And it wasn’t. That happens to me a lot when I write.

Like all of my books about these two, the main plot line is one that I’ve known for years, but as I wrote it, characters waltzed in that I hadn’t anticipated meeting, the plot twisted and tangled in ways I hadn’t foreseen, and I was, as always, blindsided several times by the Fool. But the first book is done, and the second well underway. It is my fond hope that when Loncon 3 rolls around, the first hardback will already be in the hands of the readers.

And what else? Well, a grandson was added to our family, sweeping us all back into the days of Fisher Price and naps. My husband Fred stopped sailing and was retired for about twenty minutes before we bought a small commercial building and he began remodeling it to fulfill his dream of running his own judo dojo. Oak Tree Dojo, after much painting, mowing, shoveling, and many frustrating visits to the Planning and Zoning folks, finally opened in April of 2013. Four of our students (I use the word ‘our’ loosely -- I mow the lawns) recently placed well in the Rainier Cup, our local judo tournament. I foresee only more success there.

And I gardened. My keyboard is the tool I use for typing. The tools I use for writing are more often a shovel, a rake, a hoe, and some hand tools. Through the years, I’ve found that the time spent typing is far less than the time spent trying to decide how the dialogue should go while seeding a row of radishes, or hoeing potatoes, or picking bugs off the spinach.

We have a bit of acreage, scarcely enough to be called a ‘farm’, and over the close-to-thirty years that we’ve owned it, we’ve experimented in various ways on it. We’ve raised goats, pigs, grouse, pheasant, pigeons, doves, chickens, ducks, and geese. This last year, we decided to again keep chickens, mostly bantams, a pair of big white geese (Ferdinand and Isabella), and Khaki Campbell ducks. In addition, we moved to raised bed gardening, except for the corn and potatoes. In addition to our own soil, we availed ourselves of Tagro, a side product of the Tacoma sewage system. Tagro consists of solid waste from the sewers, heated to sterility, and then mixed with the compost from all the recycled lawn cuttings and leaves from the city. In a sense, it’s the ultimate recycled product from humanity. We mixed it generously with vermiculite to lighten it a bit, and planted in it.
The months since the last progress report have sped by in a blur as I seem to be getting increasing busy. After Dotter of Her Father’s Eyes won the Costa Biography Award at the end of January, practically all of February was eaten up doing promotion for the book with a series of signings and seemingly endless newspaper, radio, and television interviews. Since then, I’ve attended at least one literary festival, academic conference, steampunk convention, or comic event every month, including the Etna Comic Con in Sicily and the Edinburgh Book Festival (which, this year, had a very strong graphic novel theme). Sorely missed there was Iain Banks, whose passing cast a gloom over the year though, at his memorial gathering in Stirling, his last wishes involved us all singing “Always Look on the Bright Side of Life” and listening to the Muppet’s “Mahna Manha” song!

At home, I’ve been working seven days a week up to twelve hours a day. Mary and I have now finished work on her next book, Sally Heathcote: Suffragette. She wrote the script, I did the lettering and detailed layouts, and Kate Charlesworth produced the stunning finished artwork. It’s to be published by Jonathan Cape next May. I’m well over halfway through the pencils and inks of Grandville Nöel, the fourth in my series of steampunk detective thrillers. I’ve produced two pages for Ravi Thorton’s next graphic novel, Hoax, done the cover and introduction to Brighton – The Graphic Novel, written and drawn a two-pager for The Author magazine, and drawn this year’s official Christmas card for the Sherlock Holmes Society of London.

I’ve also been involved with preparations for the very first European-style comics art festival in the UK, which takes place in Kendal, Cumbria, 18 – 20 October, including the setting up of my exhibition at the Wildman Gallery, which runs from October 4th to November 10. In addition, I’ve foolishly accepted a commission from Sunderland City Council to design a “pavement graphic” for the new city square. It’s to be 230 metres long and sandblasted into granite. In the last report I mentioned that I was scripting a heroic fantasy webcomic and looking for a suitable artist to draw it. I still haven’t found one!
The Site Selection process is governed by Article 4 of the WSFS Constitution. Section 4.6 defines the requirements for a bidder to be included on the Site Selection ballot. There are two key requirements:

- The bidding committee must file certain documents with the administering committee no later than 180 days before the start of the administering convention (in this case Loncon 3).
- The proposed site must be at least five hundred (500) miles or eight hundred (800) kilometres from the site at which selection occurs (ExCeL London).

Bid documents may be filed either by email (site-selection@loncon3.org) or by mailing a physical filing (BWAWA; WSFS site selection; P.O. Box 314; Annapolis Junction; MD 20701; USA).

The filing deadline for bidders is 11:59 am EST on Saturday, 15 February 2014 (4:59 am GMT on Sunday, 16 February 2014). Filings must be in the possession of the Loncon 3 committee by that date (it’s a “received by” date, not a postmark date).

1939 was an auspicious year among science fiction enthusiasts. On 2 July roughly 200 of them got together in New York City to hold the World Science Fiction Convention. The convention was hosted at Caravan Hall on East 59th Street in Manhattan and the initiation of the event was at least partly due to its slightly larger cousin, the 1939-1940 World’s Fair being held in Queens.

While it was conceived as a one-time event, it triggered another convention the following year in Chicago, then one in Denver, and that started a tradition that carries through to this day. While the intervening years have changed the scale of the event and sent it all over the globe, the scope is still the same today as it was 74 years ago... to allow a community to gather together to celebrate their shared love of science fiction and fantasy.

Part of the tradition of that celebration now is the awarding of the Hugos, to recognise the best in science fiction, fantasy, and fandom from the prior year. From their inception in 1953, the Hugo Awards have grown to be the most prestigious awards in the genre. As host of the 2014 event, Loncon 3 will be hosting the Hugo Awards for the best work in 2013. As this also marks the 75th anniversary of that first convention in 1939, Loncon 3 will be hosting a Retro Hugo Award process for the best work of 1938.

The Retro Hugos will use the same rules and categories as the current awards. There will be parallel nominating and voting processes. The eligibility for nomination and voting is identical – if you can nominate or vote for the 2014 awards, you can nominate or vote for the 1939 awards. If you’re not comfortable joining in, that’s perfectly fine; you don’t need to participate in the 1939 process to have your 2014 nominations/votes counted (and vice versa, should you feel so inclined).

While you may have a slight and very reasonable concern that you’re not aware of the eligible works for 1938, you can read articles on our website that provide a sampling of the eligible people/works for the year. Please, enjoy the guides we’ve prepared and we look forward to your assistance in helping us celebrate the best in our field for the year that started it all.
Loncon 3 will be producing a full-colour printed Artist Showcase featuring biographies and artworks from the artists participating in the Loncon 3 Art Show. The Artist Showcase will be a limited edition commemorative publication, with a maximum print run of no more than 1,000 copies. It will be edited by Colin Harris and Sara Felix, who also produced the corresponding publications for Renovation and Chicon 7. The Showcase will have a minimum of 64 pages; however, in the tradition of Kickstarter, we have a stretch goal to increase the page count if sufficient copies are pre-sold.

We expect the Loncon 3 Art Show to be a truly spectacular and memorable event – quite possibly the biggest and best display of genre art ever seen in the UK – and this is a chance for all art fans to have one of these special souvenirs. Orders are being taken on a first-come, first-served basis, so why not reserve your copy now? You’ll also be helping us reach that stretch goal so we can add more pages!

Copies of the showcase cost just £5 for Loncon 3 members, and can be ordered through our website at www.loncon3.org/art-showcase.php. Purchasers who are attending Loncon 3 will be able to collect their copies from the Art Show; we will post copies out after the convention to those who cannot collect in person.

The World Science Fiction Convention has presented the Hugo Awards for achievement in science fiction for 60 years. They are named after author and editor Hugo Gernsback.

A rocket has always been the central element of the trophy, and its manufacture has been standardized over the past several decades. The base design changes yearly, often reflecting the country, state, or province in which the convention takes place.

The Loncon 3 committee is now soliciting proposals for the 2014 Hugo Award Base design in an open competition.

Base Design Specifications

The winning proposal will conform to certain general and technical specifications. Those are:

- Bases may be made of wood, metal, lucite, or any other material which has a fixed form. Materials that are fragile or change form with age or extremes of temperature are not suitable.

- Bases must be designed in such a way that the silver Hugo rocket is an integral part of the design. Rockets for the bases will be supplied.

- Rockets will be bolted to the bases from below the tailfins and must be able to stand on a flat surface. Hanging designs are not acceptable.

- Specifications on the Hugo rocket are:
  - Height: 13” / 33.02 cm
  - Width: 2” / 5.08 cm (fin-tip to fin-tip)
  - Weight: 3 lb, 2 oz / 1.42 kg
  - Bolt: 5/16-18 machine screw thread

- Space must be left for a plaque or plaques indicating the convention, winner, and category of award won in an easily readable 12 pt font.

- The winning design should have a theme appropriate to London.

- It should be kept in mind that designs will be traveling home in people’s luggage. Fragile parts, fiddly bits, things that fall off, and anything that would make airport security too nervous is strongly discouraged. Designs shaped like sub-machine guns, for example, are right out. Sharp pointy things are also a bad idea.

- Plans for shipping the base and rocket without damage should be defined, preferably by including appropriate padded shipping containers as part of the submission.

- To see examples of the bases used for Hugo trophies at previous Worldcons, please visit www.thehugoawards.org/hugo-trophies.
How to Enter

Entry in the competition is open to all. Design proposals must be submitted by midnight (PST) on 17 January 2014, and all submissions should include:

• Drawings, sketches, and/or (preferably) a fabricated sample of the proposed base unit.

• Cost estimate per base, and estimated total cost for the fabrication and shipping of 30 base units.

• Lead time is needed for fabrication. The contest winner will be announced in late January 2014. Delivery of at least 36 bases will be expected by 30 June 2014.

• Your ability to either craft the bases or arrange for the work to be done.

As a guideline, bases should cost no more than £130 ($200) each or less to fabricate. Photos of past Hugo awards can be viewed at the Hugo Awards website.

To enter the competition, proposals should be submitted either electronically or via postal mail.

Do not forget to include your name and contact information. The winning designer will also receive a full 5-day membership to Loncon 3 and will introduce their base design at the convention.

The base will also enter the long archive of Hugo base designs, including the Hugo History exhibit which travels to each Worldcon. The winning design is unveiled during the convention and strict confidentiality will therefore apply to the winning design until then. Competition entries, regrettably, cannot be returned.

Submission

By email: please send your proposals to hugobase@loncon3.org. Include the information above and a JPG, TIFF or GIF image of your design.

By post: Please send the information requested above along with a sketch/drawing/sample base (or a disk or CD containing your sketch/drawing). The physical address is: Dave McCarty, 2617 N Richmond St, Chicago, IL 60602, USA.

Awards created under this paragraph shall be considered to be Hugo Awards.

Section 3.4: Extended Eligibility.

3.4.1: A work originally appearing in a language other than English shall also be eligible for the year in which it is first issued in English translation.

3.4.2: The Business Meeting may by a three fourths (3/4) vote provide that works originally published outside the United States of America and first published in the United States of America in the current year shall also be eligible for Hugo Awards in the following year.

3.4.3: In the event that a potential Hugo Award nominee receives extremely limited distribution in the year of its first publication or presentation, its eligibility may be extended for an additional year by a three fourths (3/4) vote of the intervening Business Meeting of WSFS.

Section 3.5: Name and Design. The Hugo Award shall continue to be standardized on the rocket ship design of Jack McKnight and Ben Jason as refined by Peter Weston. Each Worldcon Committee may select its own choice of base design. The name (Hugo Award) and the design shall not be extended to any other award.

Section 3.6: “No Award”. At the discretion of an individual Worldcon Committee, if the lack of nominations or final votes in a specific category shows a marked lack of interest in that category on the part of the voters, the Award in that category shall be canceled for that year.

Section 3.7: Nominations.

3.7.1: The Worldcon Committee shall conduct a poll to select the nominees for the final Award voting. Each member of the administering Worldcon, the immediately preceding Worldcon, or the immediately following Worldcon as of January 31 of the current calendar year shall be allowed to make up to five (5) equally weighted nominations in every category.

3.7.2: The Committee shall include with each nomination ballot a copy of Article 3 of the WSFS Constitution and any applicable extensions of eligibility under Sections 3.2.3 or 3.4.

Section 3.8: Tallying of Nominations.

3.8.1: Except as provided below, the final Award ballots shall list in each category the five eligible nominees receiving the most nominations. If there is a tie including fifth place, all the tied eligible nominees shall be listed.

3.8.2: The Worldcon Committee shall determine the eligibility of nominees and assignment to the proper category of works nominated in more than one category.

3.8.3: Any nominations for “No Award” shall be disregarded.

3.8.4: If a nominee appears on a nomination ballot more than once in any one category, only one nomination shall be counted in that category.

3.8.5: No nominee shall appear on the final Award ballot if it received fewer nominations than five percent (5%) of the number of ballots listing... one or more nominations in that category, except that the first three eligible nominees, including any ties, shall always be listed.

3.8.6: The Committee shall move a nomination from another category to the work's default category only if the member has made fewer than five (5) nominations in the default category.

3.8.7: If a work receives a nomination in its default category, and if the Committee relocates the work under its authority under subsection 3.2.9 or 3.2.10, the Committee shall count the nomination even if the member already has made five (5) nominations in the more-appropriate category.

Section 3.9: Notification and Acceptance.

3.9.1 Worldcon Committees shall use reasonable efforts to notify the nominees, or in the case of deceased or incapacitated persons, their heirs, assigns, or legal guardians, in each category prior to the release of such information. Each nominee shall be asked at that time to either accept or decline the nomination. If the nominee declines nomination, that nominee shall not appear on the final ballot.

3.9.2 In the Best Professional Artist category, the acceptance should include citations of at least three (3) works first published in the eligible year.

3.9.3 Each nominee in the categories of Best Fanzine and Best Semiprozine shall be required to provide information confirming that they meet the qualifications of their category.

Section 3.10: Voting.

3.10.1: Final Award voting shall be by balloting in advance of the Worldcon. Postal mail shall always be acceptable. Only WSFS members may vote. Final Award ballots shall include name, signature, address, and membership-number spaces to be filled in by the voter.

3.10.2: Final Award ballots shall list only the Hugo Awards and the John W. Campbell Award for Best New Writer.

3.10.3: “No Award” shall be listed in each category of Hugo Award on the final ballot.

3.10.4: The Committee shall, on or with the final ballot, designate, for each nominee in the printed fiction categories, one or more books, anthologies, or magazines in which the nominee appeared (including the book publisher or magazine issue date(s)).

3.10.5: Voters shall indicate the order of their preference for the nominees in each category.

Section 3.11: Tallying of Votes.

3.11.1: In each category, tallying shall be as described in Section 6.4. “No Award” shall be treated as a nominee. If all remaining nominees are tied, no tie-breaking shall be done and the nominees excluding “No Award” shall be declared joint winners.

3.11.2: “No Award” shall be given whenever the total number of valid ballots cast for a specific category (excluding those cast for “No Award” in first place) is less than twenty-five percent (25%) of the total number of final Award ballots received.

3.11.3: “No Award” shall be the run-off candidate for the purposes of Section 6.5.

3.11.4: The complete numerical vote totals, including all preliminary tallies for first, second, and other places, shall be made public by the Worldcon Committee within ninety (90) days after the Worldcon. During the same period the nomination voting totals shall also be published, including in each category the vote counts for at least the fifteen highest vote-getters and any other candidate receiving a number of votes equal to at least five percent (5%) of the nomination ballots cast in that category, but not including any candidate receiving fewer than five votes.

Section 3.12: Exclusions. No member of the current Worldcon Committee or any publications closely connected with a member of the Committee shall be eligible for an Award. However, should the Committee delegate all authority under this Article to a Subcommittee whose decisions are irrevocable by the Worldcon Committee, then this exclusion shall apply to members of the Subcommittee only.

Section 3.13: Retrospective Hugos. A Worldcon held 50, 75, or 100 years after a Worldcon at which no Hugos were presented may conduct nominations and elections for Hugos which would have been presented at that previous Worldcon. Procedures shall be as for the current Hugos. Categories receiving insufficient numbers of nominations may be dropped. Once retrospective Hugos have been awarded for a Worldcon, no other Worldcon shall present retrospective Hugos for that Worldcon.

Article 4 – Future Worldcon Selection

Section 4.1: Voting.

4.1.1: WSFS shall choose the location and Committee of the Worldcon to be held two (2) years from the date of the current Worldcon.

4.1.2: Voting shall be by written ballot cast either by mail or at the current Worldcon with tallying as described in Section 6.4.

4.1.3: The current Worldcon Committee shall administer the voting, collect the advance membership fees, and turn over those funds to the winning Committee before the end of the current Worldcon.

4.1.4: The site-selection voting totals shall be announced at the Business Meeting and published in the first or second Progress Report of the winning Committee, with the by-mail and at-convention votes distinguished.

Section 4.2: Voter Eligibility.

4.2.1: Voting shall be limited to WSFS members who have purchased at least a supporting membership in the Worldcon whose site is being selected.

4.2.2: The supporting membership rate shall be set by unanimous agreement of the current Worldcon Committee and all bidding committees who have filed before the ballot deadline. If agreement is not reached, the default fee shall be the median (middle value) of the US dollar fees used in the previous three (3) Worldcon site selections.

Section 4.3: Non-Natural Persons. Corporations, associations, and other non-human or artificial entities may cast ballots, but only for “No Preference”. “Guest of” memberships may only cast “No Preference” ballots. Memberships transferred to individual natural persons may cast preferential ballots, provided that the transfer is accepted by the administering convention.

Section 4.4: Ballots. Site-selection ballots shall include name, signature, address, and membership-number spaces to be filled in by the voter. Each site-selection ballot shall list the options “None of the Above” and “No Preference” and provide for write-in votes, after the bidders and with equal prominence. The supporting membership rate shall be listed on all site-selection ballots.

Section 4.5: Tallying.

4.5.1: The name and address information shall be separated from the ballots and the ballots counted only at the Worldcon. Each bidding committee should provide at least two (2) tellers. Each bidding committee may make a record of the name and address of every voter.

4.5.2: A ballot voted with first or only choice for “No Preference” shall be ignored for site selection. A ballot voted with lower than first choice for “No Preference” shall be ignored if all higher choices on the ballot have been eliminated in preferential tallying.

4.5.3: “None of the Above” shall be treated as a bid for tallying, and shall be the run-off candidate for the purposes of Section 6.5.

4.5.4: All ballots shall be initially tallied by their first preferences, even if cast for a bid that the administering Committee has ruled ineligible. If no eligible bid achieves a majority on the first round of tallying, then on the second round all ballots for ineligible bids shall be redistributed to their first eligible choices, and tallying shall proceed according to Section 6.4.

4.5.5: If “None of the Above” wins, or if two or more bids are tied for first place at the end of tallying, the duty of site selection shall devolve on the Business Meeting of the current Worldcon. If the Business Meeting is unable to decide by the end of the Worldcon, the Committee for the following Worldcon shall make the selection without undue delay.

4.5.6: Where a site and Committee are chosen by a Business Meeting or Worldcon Committee following a win by “None of the Above,” they are not restricted by exclusion zone or other qualifications.

4.5.7: Where a site and Committee are chosen by a Business Meeting or Worldcon Committee following a tie in tallying, they must select one of the tied bids.

Section 4.6: Bid Eligibility.

4.6.1: To be eligible for site selection, a bidding committee must file the following documents with the Committee that will administer the voting:

(1) an announcement of intent to bid;
(2) adequate evidence of an agreement with its proposed site's facilities, such as a conditional contract or a letter of agreement;
(3) the rules under which the Worldcon Committee will operate, including a specification of the term of office of their chief executive officer or officers and the conditions and procedures for the selection and replacement of such officer or officers.

4.6.2: The bidding committee must supply written copies of these documents to any member of WSFS on request.

4.6.3: For a bid to be allowed on the printed ballot, the bidding committee must file the documents specified above no later than 180 days prior to the official opening of the administering convention.

4.6.4: To be eligible as a write-in, the bidding committee must file the documents specified above by the close of the voting.

4.6.5: If no bids meet these qualifications, the selection shall proceed as though “None of the Above” had won.

Section 4.7: Site Eligibility. A site shall be ineligible if it is within five hundred (500) miles or eight hundred (800) kilometres of the site at which selection occurs.

Section 4.8: NASFiC

If the selected Worldcon site is not in North America, there shall be a NASFiC in North America that year. Selection of the NASFiC shall be by the identical procedure to the Worldcon selection except as provided below or elsewhere in this Constitution:

4.8.1: Voting shall be by written ballot administered by the following year's Worldcon, if there is no NASFiC in that year, or by the following year's NASFiC, if there is one, with ballots cast at the administering convention or by mail, and with only members of the administering convention allowed to vote.

4.8.2: NASFiC Committees shall make all reasonable efforts to avoid conflicts with Worldcon dates.

4.8.3: The proposed NASFiC supporting membership rate can be set by unanimous agreement of the administering Committee and all bidding committees who have filed before the ballot deadline. If agreement is not reached, the default fee shall be the median (middle value) of the US dollar fees used in the previous three (3) Worldcon site selections.

4.8.4: If “None of the Above” wins, or if no eligible bid files by the deadline, then no NASFiC shall be held and any supporting membership payments collected for the NASFiC site selection shall be refunded by the administering convention without undue delay.

Article 6 – Constitution

Section 6.1: Conduct. The conduct of the affairs of WSFS shall be determined by this Constitution together with all ratified amendments hereto and such Standing Rules as the Business Meeting shall adopt for its own governance.

Section 6.2: Natural Persons. In all matters arising under this Constitution, only natural persons may introduce business, nominate, or vote, except as specifically provided otherwise in this Constitution. No person may cast more than one vote on any issue or more than one ballot in any election. This shall not be interpreted to prohibit delivery of ballots cast by other eligible voters.

Section 6.3: Electronic Voting. Nothing in this Constitution shall be interpreted to prohibit conducting Hugo Awards nominating and voting and Site Selection voting by electronic means, except that conducting Site Selection by electronic means shall require the unanimous agreement of the current Worldcon committee and all bidding committees who have filed before the ballot deadline. Valid paper ballots delivered by any means shall always be acceptable. This section shall not be interpreted to require that such elections be conducted electronically, nor shall

Deadline

All ballots must be received prior to 31 March 2014, 11:59 PM PDT. Please mail as early as possible to ensure that your ballot will be counted.

Paper ballots should be mailed to Retro Hugo Nominations, c/o Dave McCarty, 2617 N Richmond, Chicago, IL 60647, USA. Taping the ballot shut is permissible in USA domestic mail; however we recommend mailing your ballot in an envelope. Ballots mailed outside the USA must be in an envelope.

How to Nominate by Mail or Online

Please fill in the eligibility section on the previous page. Do not forget to sign the ballot – we will not count unsigned ballots.

• You may nominate up to five persons or works in each category. However, you are permitted (and even encouraged) to make fewer nominations or none at all if you are not familiar with the works that fall into that category. The nominations are equally weighted: the order in which you list them has no effect on the outcome.

• “No Award” will appear automatically in every single category on the final ballot – there is no need to include that choice on the nomination form.

• If your nominee is not well known, please provide a source where his or her 1938 work in that category may be found. This information makes identifying the work you intend to nominate easier for us.

• Please type or print clearly. We cannot count illegible ballots.

• Please note that items may be relocated to a different category by the Hugo Awards Administrator if they are within 20% of the category boundary (such as in the case of the written fiction and dramatic presentation categories).
• Online nominations will be available via the Loncon 3 website: www.loncon3.org. You will need your membership number and PIN, which is printed on your mailing label, to nominate via the web. You may email hugopin@loncon3.org to request a PIN.

The final Hugo Ballot containing the nominees in each category that received the most nominations will be distributed by Loncon 3 in April/May 2014. Only members of Loncon 3 (including those who join after 31 January 2014) will be eligible to vote on the final ballot. If you have questions, please email hugoadmin@loncon3.org.

Eligibility

Works published in 1938 for the first time anywhere or for the first time in English are eligible for the Retro Hugo Awards being awarded in 2014.

Books are considered to have been published on the publication date, which usually appears with the copyright information on the back of the title page. If there is no stated publication date, the copyright date will be used instead. A dated periodical is considered to have been published on the cover date, regardless of when it was placed on sale or copyrighted. Serialised stories or dramatic presentations are eligible in the year in which the last instalment appears.

Extended Eligibility for non-US published works: Works initially published outside the United States prior to 1938 are not granted extended eligibility for the Retro Hugo Awards.

Other eligibility rules are included with the specific categories. The full rules for the Hugo Awards are contained in the WSFS constitution available at www.loncon3.org/wsfs-constitution.php.

Exclusions

The Loncon 3 Committee has irrevocably delegated all Hugo administration authority to a subcommittee. Therefore, only Dave McCarty, Ben Yalow, Vince Docherty, Dave Gallaher, Steve Cooper and Alice Lawson are ineligible for the 1939 Retro Hugo Awards.

Reproduction

Reproduction and distribution of this ballot is permitted and encouraged, provided that it is reproduced verbatim (including voting instructions), with no additional material other than the name of the person or publication responsible for the reproduction.

Please be sure to sign your ballot!
Please Read These Instructions Carefully Before Casting Your Ballot for the 2014 Hugo Award & John W. Campbell Award for Best New Writer

Eligibility to Nominate

You may nominate for the 2014 Hugo Awards and John W. Campbell Award for Best New Writer if, on or before 31 January 2014, 11:59 PM PST:

- you are an attending or supporting member of Loncon 3 (the 2014 World Science Fiction Convention).
- you are an attending or supporting member of Sasquan (the 2015 World Science Fiction Convention).
- you were an attending or supporting member of LoneStarCon 3 (the 2013 World Science Fiction Convention).

Note: Young Adult and military memberships count as attending memberships and are eligible to nominate. Child memberships, one day memberships, and hall passes do not.

Deadline

All ballots must be received prior to 31 March 2014, 11:59 PM PDT. Please mail as early as possible to ensure that your ballot will be counted.

Paper ballots should be mailed to Hugo Nominations, c/o Dave McCarty, 2617 N Richmond, Chicago, IL 60647, USA. Taping the ballot shut is permissible in USA domestic mail; however we recommend mailing your ballot in an envelope. Ballots mailed outside the USA must be in an envelope.

How to Nominate by Mail or Online

Please fill in the eligibility section on the previous page. Do not forget to sign the ballot – we will not count unsigned ballots.

- You may nominate up to five persons or works in each category. However, you are permitted (and even encouraged) to make fewer nominations or none at all if you are not familiar with the works that fall into that category. The nominations are equally weighted: the order in which you list them has no effect on the outcome.

- “No Award” will appear automatically in every single category on the final ballot – there is no need to include that choice on the nomination form.

- If your nominee is not well known, please provide a source where his or her 2014 work in that category may be found. This information makes identifying the work you intend to nominate easier for us.

- Please type or print clearly. We cannot count illegible ballots.

- Please note that items may be relocated to a different category by the Hugo Awards Administrator if they are within 20% of the category boundary (such as in the case of the written fiction and dramatic presentation categories).
Online nominations will be available via the Loncon 3 website: www.loncon3.org. You will need your membership number and PIN, which is printed on your mailing label, to nominate via the web. You may email hugopin@loncon3.org to request a PIN.

The final Hugo Ballot containing the nominees in each category that received the most nominations will be distributed by Loncon 3 in April/May 2014. Only members of Loncon 3 (including those who join after 31 January 2014) will be eligible to vote on the final ballot. If you have questions, please email hugoadmin@loncon3.org.

Eligibility

Works published in 2013 for the first time anywhere or for the first time in English are eligible for the Hugo Awards being awarded in 2014.

Books are considered to have been published on the publication date, which usually appears with the copyright information on the back of the title page. If there is no stated publication date, the copyright date will be used instead. A dated periodical is considered to have been published on the cover date, regardless of when it was placed on sale or copyrighted. Serialised stories or dramatic presentations are eligible in the year in which the last instalment appears.

Extended Eligibility for non-US published works: The 2013 WSFS business meeting, as authorized by section 3.2.3 of the WSFS constitution, passed a resolution providing that works originally published outside the United States prior to 2013 but first published in the United States in 2013 shall be eligible for the 2014 Hugo Awards unless they have already appeared on a final Hugo Award ballot.

Other eligibility rules are included with the specific categories. The full rules for the Hugo Awards are contained in the WSFS constitution available at www.loncon3.org/wsfs-constitution.php.

Exclusions

The Loncon 3 Committee has irrevocably delegated all Hugo administration authority to a subcommittee. Therefore, only Dave McCarty, Ben Yalow, Vince Docherty, Dave Gallaher, Steve Cooper and Alice Lawson are ineligible for the 2014 Hugo Awards.

Reproduction

Reproduction and distribution of this ballot is permitted and encouraged, provided that it is reproduced verbatim (including voting instructions), with no additional material other than the name of the person or publication responsible for the reproduction.

This ballot must be received by
Monday 31 March 2014, 11:59 PM PDT

“World Science Fiction Society”, “WSFS”, “World Science Fiction Convention”, “Worldcon”, “NASFiC”, “Hugo Award”, the Hugo Award Logo, and the distinctive design of the Hugo Award Trophy Rocket are service marks of the World Science Fiction Society, an unincorporated literary society.

Please be sure to sign your ballot!
it be interpreted to allow remote participation or proxy voting at the Business Meeting.

Section 6.4: Tallying of Votes. Votes shall first be tallied by the voter's first choices. If no majority is then obtained, the candidate who places last in the initial tallying shall be eliminated and the ballots listing it as first choice shall be redistributed on the basis of those ballots' second choices. This process shall be repeated until a majority-vote winner is obtained. If two or more candidates are tied for elimination during this process, the candidate that received fewer first-place votes shall be eliminated. If they are still tied, all the tied candidates shall be eliminated together.

Section 6.5: Run-off. After a tentative winner is determined, then unless the run-off candidate shall be the sole winner, the following additional test shall be made. If the number of ballots preferring the run-off candidate to the tentative winner is greater than the number of ballots preferring the tentative winner to the run-off candidate, then the run-off candidate shall be declared the winner of the election.

Section 6.6: Amendment. The WSFS Constitution may be amended by a motion passed by a simple majority at any Business Meeting but only to the extent that such motion is ratified by a simple majority at the Business Meeting of the subsequent Worldcon.

Section 6.7: Commencement. Any change to the Constitution of WSFS shall take effect at the end of the Worldcon at which such change is ratified, except that no change imposing additional costs or financial obligations upon Worldcon Committees shall be binding upon any Committee already selected at the time when it takes effect.

The above copy of the World Science Fiction Society's Constitution is hereby Certified to be True, Correct, and Complete:

Donald E. Eastlake III, Presiding Officer
Linda Deneroff, Secretary
2013 WSFS Business Meeting

Standing Rules for the Governance of the WSFS Business Meeting

Group 1: Meetings

Rule 1.1: Meeting and Session. The Annual Meeting of the World Science Fiction Society shall consist of one or more Preliminary Business Meetings and one or more Main Business Meetings. The first meeting shall be designated as a Preliminary Business Meeting. All meetings at a Worldcon (preliminary, main, or otherwise) shall be considered a single "session" as defined in the Parliamentary Authority (see section 5.1 of the WSFS Constitution, regardless of whether such gatherings are called "meetings" or "sessions."

Rule 1.2: Preliminary Business Meeting(s). The Preliminary Business Meeting may not directly reject, pass, or ratify amendments to the Constitution; however, all motions adhering to a Constitutional amendment are in order if otherwise allowed. The Preliminary Business Meeting may not refer a Constitutional amendment to a committee unless the committee's instructions are to report to the Main Business Meeting. The Preliminary Business Meeting may not postpone consideration of a Constitutional amendment beyond the last Preliminary Business Meeting. The Preliminary Business Meeting may not amend a Constitutional amendment pending ratification. The Preliminary Business Meeting may consider any business not expressly forbidden to it by the Standing Rules or expressly reserved to the Main Business Meeting.

Rule 1.3: Main Business Meeting(s). The Main Business Meeting may reject, pass, or ratify amendments to the Constitution. One Main Meeting shall be also be designated as the Site-Selection Meeting, where Site-Selection business shall be the special order of business.

Rule 1.4: Scheduling of Meetings. The first Main Meeting shall be scheduled no less than eighteen (18) hours after the conclusion of the last Preliminary Meeting. No meeting shall be scheduled to begin before 10:00 or after 13:00 local time.

Rule 1.5: Smoking. If smoking is allowed in the place where the Business Meeting is held, the Presiding Officer shall divide the room into smoking and non-smoking sections at the beginning of each meeting.

Rule 1.6: Recording of Sessions. The Presiding Officer may arrange for the recording of meetings in any medium and for the distribution of such recordings. Individual members may also record meetings at their own discretion, subject to the will of the assembly as authorized by rule 5.9.

Group 2: New Business

Rule 2.1: Deadline for Submission of New Business. The deadline for submission of non-privileged new business to the Business Meeting shall be fourteen (14) days before the first Preliminary Meeting. The Presiding Officer may accept otherwise qualified motions submitted after the deadline, but all such motions shall be placed at the end of the agenda.

Rule 2.2: Requirements for Submission of New Business. Two hundred (200) identical, legible copies of all proposals for non-privileged new business shall be submitted to the Presiding Officer before the deadline in Rule 2.1 unless such proposals are distributed to the attendees at the Worldcon by the Worldcon Committee. All proposals must be legibly signed by a maker and at least one seconder.

Rule 2.3: Interpretation of Motions. The Presiding Officer shall reject any question having to do with the sequence of order of any proposal or motion that is obviously illegal or hopelessly incoherent. In the absence of the maker of a motion or instructions to the contrary, the Presiding Officer shall be free to interpret the meaning of any motion.

Rule 2.4: Short Title. Any item of new business considered by the Business Meeting shall contain a short title.

Group 3: Debate Time Limits

Rule 3.1: Main Motions. The Presiding Officer shall designate the default debate time for main motions. The Business Meeting may, by majority vote, set the initial debate time limit for any motion to any positive whole number of minutes.

Rule 3.2: Allotment of Time. If a question is divided, the time limits applicable to the question before it was divided shall apply to each portion of the divided question. Debate time shall be allotted equally to each side of a question. Time spent on points of order or other neutral matters arising from a motion shall be divided equally and charged to each side.

Rule 3.3: Amendments. Debate on all amendments to main motions shall be limited to five (5) minutes, allotted equally to each side. Time spent on debate of an amendment shall be charged against the time for the main motion.

Rule 3.4: Motions Allowed After Expiration. Motions that adhere to the main motion shall not be out of order because of the expiration of debate time, but shall be undebatable.

Rule 3.5: Minimum Substantive Debate. If the debate time expires before either or both sides of the question have had an opportunity for substantive debate, any side that has not had such an opportunity shall have two (2) minutes to be used solely for the purpose of substantive debate.

Group 4: Official Papers

Rule 4.1: Indicating Revisions. The Business Meeting staff shall clearly indicate all changes (including deletions) from the previous year’s version when they provide the Constitution and Standing Rules for publication prior to the following Worldcon. However, the failure to indicate such changes shall not affect the validity of the documents.

Rule 4.2: Corrections. Any correction of fact to the Minutes or to the Constitution or Standing Rules as published should be brought to the attention of the Secretary of the Business Meeting in question and of the next available Business Meeting as soon as they are discovered.

Rule 4.3: Numbers, Titles, References, and Technical Corrections. Numbers and titles of the various parts of the Constitution and Standing Rules are for the sake of easy reference only. They do not form a substantive part of these documents nor of any motion to amend these documents. The Business Meeting Secretary shall incorporate into these documents appropriate changes as required by newly adopted amendments. When making any such adjustments required by this section, the Business Meeting Secretary shall change article and section numbers, titles, and internal cross-references as necessary to maintain a consistent, parallel structure, which shall not be altered unless the Business Meeting explicitly so directs. The Business Meeting Secretary may change punctuation, capitalization, grammar, and other wording in the Constitution and Standing Rules only insofar as such changes clarify meaning and enhance consistency, and only insofar as such changes do not modify the substantive meaning of the documents.

Rule 4.4: Submission Deadlines: Reports. All WSFS Committee Reports and all Worldcon Annual Financial Reports (see Constitution Section 2.9.1) shall be submitted to the Business Meeting by no later than fourteen (14) days before the first Preliminary Business Meeting.

Rule 4.5: Availability of BM Materials. All WSFS Committee Reports, Worldcon Annual Financial Reports, and New Business submitted to the Business Meeting before the 14-day deadline (see Rules 2.1 and 4.4) shall be made generally available to WSFS members (e.g. via publication on the host Worldcon’s web site) by no later than ten (10) days before the first Preliminary Business Meeting.

Group 5: Variations of Rules
Rule 5.1: Nonstandard Parliamentary Authority. If a Worldcon Committee adopts for the governance of the Business Meeting a parliamentary authority other than that specified in the Constitution, the Committee must in timely fashion publish information about how to obtain copies of the authority in question.

Rule 5.2: Constitutional and Standing Rule Amendments. Motions to Amend the Constitution, to Ratify a Constitutional Amendment, and to Amend the Standing Rules shall be considered ordinary main motions, except as otherwise provided in the Standing Rules or Constitution. An object to consideration shall not be in order against ratification of a constitutional amendment.

Rule 5.3: Postpone Indefinitely. The motion to Postpone Indefinitely shall not be allowed.

Rule 5.4: Amend; Secondary Amendments. Secondary amendments (amendments to amendments) are not allowed except when the primary amendment is to substitute.

Rule 5.5: Previous Question. A person speaking to a motion may not immediately offer a motion to close debate. The motion for the Previous Question (also known as the motion “close debate,” “call the question,” and “vote now”) shall not be in order when there is less than one minute of debate time remaining, nor when either or both sides of the debate have yet to speak to a question. Before voting on the motion for the Previous Question, the Presiding Officer shall, without debate, ask for a show of hands of those persons who still wish to speak to the matter under consideration.

Rule 5.6: Lay on the Table. The motion to Lay on the Table shall require a two-thirds (2/3) vote for adoption.

Rule 5.7: Adjournment. The incidental main motion to adjourn sine die shall not be in order until all Special and General Orders have been discharged.

Rule 5.8: Suspension of Rules. Rules protecting the rights of absentees, including this rule, may not be suspended.

Rule 5.9: Start/Stop Recording. If the meeting is being recorded, a motion to Stop Recording or to Start Recording is a privileged motion and shall be handled in the same way as a motion to Enter or Leave Executive Session.

Group 6: Mark Protection Committee Elections
Rule 6.1: Nominations. Nominations for election to the Mark Protection Committee shall be allowed from the floor at each Preliminary Business Meeting. To be listed on the ballot, each nominee must submit to the Secretary of the Business Meeting the nominee’s consent to nomination and the nominee’s current region of residence. A nominee shall be ineligible if the nominee could not be elected due to the regional residence restrictions. The deadline for submitting such consent to nomination shall be set by the Secretary.

Rule 6.2: Elections. Elections to the Mark Protection Committee shall be a special order of business at a designated Main Business Meeting. Voting shall be by written preferential ballot with written votes allowed. Votes for write-in candidates who do not submit written consent to nomination and region of residence to the Presiding Officer before the close of balloting shall be ignored. The ballot shall list each nominee’s name and region of residence. The first seat filled shall be by normal preferential ballot procedures as defined in Section 6.4 of the WSFS Constitution. There shall be no run-off candidate. After a seat is filled, votes for the elected member and for all nominees who are now ineligible due to regional residence restrictions shall be eliminated before conducting the next ballot. This procedure shall continue until all seats are filled. In the event of a first-place tie for any seat, the tie shall be broken unless all tied candidates can be elected simultaneously. Should there be any partial-term vacancies on the committee, the partial-term seat(s) shall be filled after the full-term seats have been filled.

Group 7: Miscellaneous
Rule 7.1: Question Time. During the Site-Selection Meeting, fifteen (15) minutes of program time shall be allocated to each future seated Worldcon committee. During the five (5) minutes, each candidate may make such presentations as they wish. The remaining time shall be allocated for questions to be asked about that committee’s Worldcon. Questions may be submitted in writing at any previous meeting. Questions submitted in writing shall have priority over other questions if the person who submitted the question is present and still wishes to ask the question. No person may ask a second question as long as any person wishes to ask a first question. Questions are limited to fifteen (15) seconds and responses to two (2) minutes. If time permits at the Site-Selection Meeting, committees bidding for the right to host any Worldcon whose selection will take place in the next calendar year shall be allocated five (5) minutes of program time to make such presentations as they wish. The time limits in this rule may be modified by majority vote.

Rule 7.2: Dilatory Actions; Misuse of Inquiries. The sole purpose of a “point of information” or “parliamentary inquiry” is to ask the Presiding Officer for an opinion of the effect of a motion or for guidance as to the correct procedure to follow. The Presiding Officer shall treat as dilatory any attempts to circumvent the rules of debate under the guise of points of information, parliamentary inquiries, or other queries and requests.

Rule 7.3: Counted Vote. The Presiding Officer shall take a counted vote upon the request of ten percent (10%) of those members attending the meeting.

Rule 7.4: Carrying Business Forward. Motions other than Constitutional amendments awaiting ratification may be carried forward from one year to the next only by being postponed indefinitely or by being referred to a committee.

Rule 7.5: Continuing Resolutions. Resolutions of continuing effect (“continuing resolutions”) may be repealed or amended by majority vote of subsequent Business Meetings without notice, and shall be automatically repealed or amended by applicable amendments to the Constitution or Standing Rules or by conflicting resolutions passed by subsequent Business Meetings.

Rule 7.6: Committees. All committees are authorized to organize themselves in any lawful manner and to adopt rules for the conduct of their business, which may include conducting ballots by mail and limiting debate, subject to any contrary provisions of the Constitution, the Standing Rules, or instructions given to the committee by the Business Meeting.

Rule 7.7: Nitpicking and Flyspecking Committee. The Business Meeting shall appoint a Nitpicking and Flyspecking Committee. The Committee shall: (1) Maintain the list of Rulings and Resolutions of Continuing Effect (2) Codify the Customs and Usages of WSFS and of the Business Meeting.

3.2.4: A work shall not be eligible if in a prior year it received sufficient nominations to appear on the final award ballot.
Access

Loncon 3 is committed to an accessible Worldcon that supports the varied needs of our members who might need support, in order to enable everyone to enjoy the convention to the full. The ExCeL centre is a new venue which is compliant with the Equality Act 2010, as are the neighbouring hotels. ExCeL has been purposely designed and built to allow unrestricted access to disabled visitors.

We will have both electric and manual wheelchairs, as well as a few heavy-duty scooters available for rental for the duration of Loncon 3. Information on rental cost, deposits, and other specifics will be published on the website as soon as contract negotiations are finalised.

We have reserved as many as possible of the disabled rooms available in the onsite hotels so that we can meet as many requests for disabled rooms as possible. We currently believe all disabled rooms are suitable for wheelchair and mobility scooter users.

Accessible accommodation of either type can be requested in advance of the regular booking service opening. Please submit requests for accessible hotel rooms by using the Accessible Accommodation Request Form at www.loncon3.org/accessible_hotels.php. If you have any specific question about how we can help, please contact us at access@loncon3.org.

Childcare

In addition to the children’s programme, we are planning to provide childcare, and we are currently in touch with a number of providers. We hope to get the balance right between the most appropriate service and the high cost of childcare in London.

At Worldcon, an additional charge is usually made to parents over and above the child member’s joining fee. It would help us enormously if we could have some indication even at this early stage of how many of our members are likely to use this service, and the age ranges of your children. Please email childcare@loncon3.org. Although we are not taking bookings yet, we might need to have a deadline for all bookings, which we will of course publicise in advance.

The hours during which childcare will be available will depend on the provider. At a minimum we hope to have coverage for the following times:

- Thursday 14 August 1:00 pm – 6:00 pm
- Friday 15 August to Monday 18 August 9:30 am – 6:30 pm

If you have any queries about childcare, please contact us at childcare@loncon3.org.

Promotions

Loncon 3 needs you! We will likely be the biggest ever Worldcon outside America: you can help us make it even bigger, by staffing a table at your local convention, bringing flyers to your local book, comic, or game shops, connecting us with other genre-related events, or indeed signing up friends and family. Please get in touch with promotions@loncon3.org or via our website.
Calling all costumers

I am Miki Dennis and I’ve been costuming for a long time. I have costumed at four Worldcons, both in the Masquerade and in hall costumes around the conventions. I am organising a costume display that will be placed somewhere near the Art Show. I am aiming to present some examples of British costumes since Interaction, the 2005 Worldcon in Glasgow.

This exhibit will include a couple of previous masquerade winners and some examples of various genres in costuming, including steampunk and recreation. It will also include props, photographs, and videos charting the modern scene as well as the history of cosplay. I am still looking for costumes and props to show so if you know of any items to include, please contact me. Specifically, I would like to hear from the new, younger cosplayers - especially if you have a spectacular costume and are not entering the Masquerade.

Programme

Programme is organised into teams that cover a wide variety of areas. These include comics, gaming, science, literature, young adult, costuming, cosplay and style, filk, music, TV, films, and more. All of these areas have Area Heads who have set up groups to contribute thoughts and ideas and bounce ideas between them by email and in person. (To see who is in charge of each area, check the Committee and Staff list on our website.)

We’re also encouraging people to volunteer to be on the programme. We have over 150 people who have offered to participate over the past year or so, and we are hoping for many more. Ideas have also been coming in, both from people who want to do something and those who want to see something happen.

Do we need more ideas? Of course we do. We want to hear about the subjects that you want to hear about, and we have a page on our website for you to submit ideas. We also want to hear from participants: not just professionals, but anyone who wants to talk on a given subject in an informed and engaging way.

Often the best participants are reluctant to volunteer, or see themselves as being unsuitable for programme, but we encourage you to remove that bar, sign up, and let us know what you want to do. Furthermore, if you have seen people who performed brilliantly or had a real insight into a subject, please recommend them to us and we’ll see if they are coming along.

In December, we will put our programme survey online and potential participants will be asked to fill it in. This is backed up by a super “sit up and make you coffee” database, which helps our worldwide team work together to plan the programme. Potential participants can tag their interests, and submit the information that enables the creative programmers to slot the best participant into the right programme item.

From January onwards, we will start to let participants know whether they will be partaking in the convention programme. This is an ongoing

A Worldcon works very differently to modern cosplay conventions so I would really like to talk to any cosplayers who are coming in case we can arrange something for hall costumers throughout the con. Things have moved on a great deal since the last Worldcon in the UK so if you have any ideas, get in touch with me at miki.dennis@loncon3.org.

Society for Creative Anachronism

Are you coming to Worldcon? Are you a member of the Society for Creative Anachronism? If so, you’ll be interested to learn that we are looking at a possible SCA exhibit.

What we plan to offer depends on numbers – from a small stall through to an indoor encampment with Fighter displays and Arts and Crafts. So if you fancy lending a hand for a couple of hours and meeting the local members from London, Europe and beyond, please drop a line to Adam Edwards (Lord Guy de Dinan) via our website: scaworldcon.wordpress.com.
task that will take us months to complete, so don’t worry if you don’t hear from us straight away.

At the beginning of April, as ideas have coalesced, we will have a massive weekend session where the programme division rolls their sleeves up and we bring all this work together.

With four months to go, there will still be scope for new items and ideas to bring in current discussions and issues in the field, and spaces to slot in new participants. However, the programme framework will be in place, and we hope that anyone who wants to participate will have let us know by then.

We want participants to know why they are on a programme item, whether it is a personal interest, an area of expertise, or an item they requested. If you’re ever unsure why you are on an item, please ask and the team can explain why we think you’d be great for the item.

Everything is about you, our members having as good an experience as possible, but the real key to it all is our participants. Would you like to be a part of this process? Email programme@loncon3.org or visit www.loncon3.org/prog_volunteer_form.php.
Cosplay and Masquerading

Costuming goes by lots of different names these days and covers much more than just interpretations of characters from books or reproductions of movie costumes. Anime, gaming, and manga are all having a huge impact on costuming at conventions, and the increasingly common term ‘cosplay’ instead of ‘costuming’ reflects this.

Whatever your preference, we hope you’ll come to Loncon 3 with your props, costumes, and makeup and have fun. We have a great venue for cosplay with fabulous Thames-side scenery for photography.

You’ll also have the opportunity to put on a world-class theatrical presentation in front of thousands of other fans in the Saturday night Masquerade, which will be held in the ICC Auditorium, a venue that can seat up to 4,000 people. Like the rest of the site, it is accessible to the disabled.

Loncon 3 is following the guidelines prepared by the International Costumers’ Guild, Inc, located at www.costume.org/documents/fairness.html. Email us at masquerade@loncon3.org and keep an eye on the website for more information early in 2014!

Retro Hugo Awards Ceremony

July 1939. New York City. The World’s Fair in all its glory has captivated the imagination. Swing and Big Band music are at the top of the charts. Set against this backdrop, a small group of science fiction fans and pros gathered together in New York for the very first World Science Fiction Convention. Later dubbed “Nycon I”, this pioneering group set the stage for all the Worldcons that have followed, including Loncon 3. So many names remain known to us today: Isaac Asimov, Harry Harrison, Dave Kyle, Sam Moscowitz, Erle Korshak, Forrest J Ackerman, Ray Bradbury, John W. Campbell, Jr., Frank R. Paul....

We invite you to join us on Thursday evening at Loncon 3 as we present the 1939 Retro Hugo Awards. Our imagining of what the 1939 Hugo Awards would have been like, complete with retro-futuristic clothing, swing music, and 1939 formal wear will be a gala night to remember! We also encourage you to participate personally by wearing your own retro-futuristic costumes (what might you have predicted the people in the future would be wearing if you had been at Nycon I?) or true retro 1939 formal wear. Join us after the ceremony for the first dance of Loncon 3, celebrating the music of 1939 and swing dancing!

2014 Hugo Awards Ceremony

The Hugo Awards Ceremony for 2014 will present A Very British Affair, celebrating both the City of London and the “crown jewels” of modern speculative fiction. We have many wonderful ideas and surprises for you in store on Sunday evening at Loncon 3.

We will be broadcasting a live web stream of the ceremony as several of the last Worldcons have done. More information will be available closer to the date.

Don’t forget to pack your top hat and tails, ball gown, and high-heeled shoes – it will be a night to remember in London!

The West End Comes to Loncon 3

We are delighted to be working with several directors to bring you some truly magnificent live theatrical events at Loncon 3. Some will be full-scale spectacles in the ICC Auditorium, and some will be smaller and more intimate “black box” productions. Full details to be announced in early 2014.

Music and Dance

Don’t forget to pack your dancing shoes – we are currently planning for a minimum of one dance per day at Loncon 3! We will have a 1939 era Swing Dance and, this being London, we of course must have a Regency Ball! Not feeling retro? Don’t despair! There will be plenty of modern era dances as well.

Additionally, we are working with Music Programme on bringing you several live concerts throughout the convention.

Hotel Bookings

Hotel bookings will open soon, and this section of the progress report should give you all the information you need to choose and book a hotel. Please read it carefully. If you have any questions that aren’t answered here, you can email hotels@loncon3.org.

All of the events and hospitality for Loncon 3 will take place in the ExCeL convention centre. We do not currently plan to have any convention events or programming in the hotels. We will therefore not have a main or headquarters hotel, although of course some hotels are closer to the convention centre than others. Please note that we do not have corkage waivers or party arrangements in any hotel, therefore all open parties will take place in the convention centre. We will have more information on how to organize an open party in the next few months. Please check our website or send an email to parties@loncon3.org for information on parties.

Please note that under UK law, smoking is not permitted in any indoor public area of any hotel, or in ExCeL London. Smoking is permitted in hotel bedrooms that are designated as smoking rooms.

Hotel booking via our convention website will open at 16:00 UK time (GMT) on 2 January 2014. This will link to the hotel booking website, run for us by our hotel agency, Infotel. If you would prefer to make a booking by phone, you can call them on +44 1775 843406 between 09:00 and 17:00 (UK time) on weekdays from 2 January on. Please do not call this number before bookings open.

The earliest night for which the convention room rates are available is Sunday 10 August, and the last night is Wednesday 20 August (checking out on Thursday 21 August). Please be aware that availability of nights before and after the convention varies from hotel to hotel. The Infotel website will let you book almost any hotel in the country, not just the convention hotels at which we have block rates, so you can also use it for accommodation further afield and before or after the convention.

Distances marked with an asterisk, below, are on the opposite side of ExCeL London to the Loncon 3 entrance. As such, 500m of the walk is within ExCeL.

Accessible rooms

We are accepting advance requests for rooms in any hotel (including the Aloft) from members with disabilities. Please visit www.loncon3.org/accessible_hotels.php to let us know if you need an accessible room.

Hotel information

The hotels and their locations are in the table, and the hotels (except the Marriott) are shown on the map. Note that the quoted hotel rates include all applicable taxes (20% VAT) — the price listed here is the total you will actually pay per night.

The hotels have different cancellation policies and parking availability and cost also varies between the hotels. Some hotels are better suited to families than others, and the Aloft Starwood, Ramada Docklands, Ibis London ExCeL Docklands and Ibis Styles London ExCeL each include free Wi-Fi in their room rates. Please visit our website for more information on any of the hotels in the table.

Most of the hotels have fairly small bedrooms – hotels in the UK are generally smaller than American hotels, and hotels in London are even more so. If you would like a large bedroom, you are probably best off in the Crowne Plaza, or in a suite. In particular, note that very few of the hotel rooms are suitable for triple or quadruple occupancy; twin rooms generally have two single beds (normally 90cm/3ft wide) and double rooms have one 135cm/4ft 6in bed. Bed sizes in the UK are not entirely standardised, but normally a king-size bed will be 150cm/5ft and a super-king will be 180cm/6ft.

Off-site hotels

There are direct Docklands Light Railway trains from ExCeL to the Tower Bridge, Canary Wharf, and Stratford areas, and we have convention rates for some hotels in these areas, which will be available via the website. We’ve included the Marriott at West India Quay in Canary Wharf in the main table because it’s a popular chain and the closest five-star hotel to the convention. The other off-site hotels with convention rates are: Radisson Blu Edwardian New Providence Wharf, Hilton London Canary Wharf, Britannia International, Marlin Canary Wharf serviced apartments, Marlin Apartments Limehouse, Marlin Apartments London Stratford, Holiday Inn London Stratford, Staybridge Suites Stratford, Novotel Tower Bridge, and Hilton Tower Bridge.
The Aloft hotel

The Aloft hotel is the closest hotel to the convention centre and we expect demand for this hotel to be very high. Rather than allocate the Aloft rooms to the people who happen to be online when room bookings open, we are running a lottery. If you would like to be considered for a room in the Aloft, first book a room at another hotel through our website. Then, on or after 2 January, please email aloft@loncon3.org with your name, membership number (if known), number and type of rooms required (up to three rooms per request/individual), and expected check-in/out dates, as well as your reservation information for the other hotel room(s) you’ve reserved.

We will stop accepting requests at midnight GMT 17 January 2014. We will contact the successful entrants with details on booking their room. An individual may request no more than three rooms and must have a corresponding number of rooms booked at another hotel. Requests for larger blocks of rooms will not be accepted. Note: Please, please book a room in one of the other hotels – there is no guarantee that everyone who asks for a room in the Aloft will be able to get one and we would like to make sure you have a room so you can enjoy the convention! We will track the double bookings and make sure that successful entrants cancel excess bookings so as to avoid charges to their credit card.

We also have a small number of suites in the Aloft for £260 per night. As with the regular sleeping rooms, we are allocating these ourselves rather than booking them through the website. If you would like one, please email suites@loncon3.org with your details. They are not large suites, having only one (sub-divided) room, but they are significantly larger than the Aloft’s standard bedrooms. Suites in other hotels can be booked through the Infotel website in the same way as other rooms. Since suite allocation will be handled after booking opens, we recommend that you also book a regular hotel room in order to ensure you have a room should we be oversubscribed for suites.

Remember that we do not have a corkage waiver in the Aloft, nor in any of the other hotels.

Hospitality

The Hospitality Hall will be the centre of our social activities during the day and in the evenings. Here’s our current design for the space, but keep in mind plenty may still change. We’ll have a small stage for occasional musical and other performances (think filk and liquid nitrogen). The teen yurt is the space for teenagers, and the fan tents will be home to various groups or conventions. We’ll have a lawn with a selection of more or less classic garden games (no croquet, sadly), and boardgames in the adjacent tent. The library will be a slightly quieter space to enjoy a drink and the company of your friends, or just sit and read a book. The lounge and party area will be given over to all our party organisers each evening. If you want to join them, get in touch with us at hospitality@loncon3.org!
